

The Gallery at Merritt Bookstore

The Gallery is a newly renovated space on the second floor of Merritt Bookstore with a modern gallery hanging system. Shows change monthly.

The Gallery lists with all the local magazines and papers. Prospective exhibitors should note that a Merritt collects 20% commission for all pieces sold during the duration of the the showing.

For more information or questions please contact Events Coordinator Eva Anderson at eva@merrittbookstore.com.

FAQ:

Set Up/Take Down:

Exhibitions are usually set up at the beginning of the month and taken down at the end. The artist is responsible for the setup and cleanup of their work and personal belongings. The artist will set up/clean up during a time that has been agreed upon by both the artist and Merritt Bookstore.

Insuring your work:

Merritt Bookstore has insurance that covers any work displayed in the gallery up to a certain dollar amount. We are happy to discuss specifics if we move forward in planning an exhibition with you.

Artist's Reception:

We are also happy to help you set up an opening reception, however, we find that we cannot rely on our own local following to attend. You must have invitees that are confirmed and able to attend. With that being said, for every artist's reception we host we send out a press release to local newspapers, submit to local calendars, put up posters around town, and provide continuous social media exposure. We will do everything we can to bring new faces to your event. If we do decide to host a reception Merritt Bookstore will provide wine, cheese, and light refreshments.
